Union League Club of Chicago

Since its inception in 1879, the Union League Club of Chicago has been a cornerstone of the Chicago business, civic, social and cultural community. In addition to being a full-service, members-only club that provides an array of amenities in social, business and health and fitness experiences, and their diligent pursuit to provide ongoing support for America's military, the Union League Club of Chicago also sponsors three independent philanthropic foundations; Union League Boys & Girls Clubs, which serve more than 15,000 youth annually in eight locations in the City of Chicago and a residential summer camp in southern Wisconsin; Luminarts Cultural Foundation that provides scholarships and grants in art, music, writing, performance, civic and academics for hundreds of young people; and the Chicago Engineers' Foundation, that grants incentive awards to engineering students.

Lincoln Forum

Since its founding in 2017, The Lincoln Forum has emerged as one of Illinois' most prominent public policy platforms. The forum was founded by former ILGOP Chairman Pat Brady, Democratic Strategist Eric Adelstein and Communication Strategists, Tracy Slutzkin and Hayley Burns.
